Further details

- Three questions, answer them all.
- A strict word limit will be enforced for your answers (no more than 1000 for each of the three questions).
- You MUST upload your response as PDF. Other formats will not be marked.
- Company and individual names used in the questions are entirely fictitious and irrelevant to the answer.

Comments on exam technique

- Don't brain dump
- Make sure that your answers are closely related to the scenario in the question – make them specific, not general
- Where questions focus on legal issues you need to give a carefully argued response
- Read the questions carefully, e.g. if you are asked to define terms and/or discuss case law, you should do so. You will lose marks if you don't.
- Assume [5%] == one correct point.
